

SOLDIER RELIEF WILL PLAY LARGE PART WITH G.O.P.

Harding Will Give Matter
Very Careful Consideration.

TO AVOID SCANDAL

Post-Election Talk Of Money Spending To Be Avoided.

Washington, June 26.—Soldier legislation will be an important piece in Senator Harding's speech of acceptance. The soldier vote will be given careful and tender treatment by the Harding Campaign managers and every effort will be made to win them to the support of the Republican ticket.

Senator Harding conferred for more than an hour with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Jr., who is prominent in the councils of organizations representing the A. E. F. Following that conference the senator devoted hours last night at his home to whipping into shape for his acceptance speech, many thoughts he has gathered from conversations with his visitors. He resumed these labors this morning and was late in arriving at his office.

Senator Harding is being held responsible with other Republican leaders of the senate for the failure of the bonus bill to pass, according to these reports. It is understood that discussion of the sentiment of the ex-soldiers toward the Republican ticket and steps necessary to be taken to remove resentment was made as important a feature of the Harding-Roosevelt conferences as the feeling toward the ticket of Roosevelt progressives.

NATURE NOT KNOWN

The nature of the assurance of assistance, the former service men will receive has not been indicated by Senator Harding. It is safe to predict however, that he will stand by his pre-convention position of urging for the ex-soldier fair and just compensation and liberal recompense
for their losses during the war.

Efforts are being made by Senator Harding to keep money scandals out of the campaign and to prevent the after election charge that "the election was bought." His pre-convention campaign was financed on small contributions voluntarily offered by his friends and in large part by his fellow townsmen of Marion, Ohio. He has urged the Republican campaign managers that they keep down the expenditures in the general campaign
and that they invite small contributions.

This plan is to be followed by the national committee, although Col.
William Boyce Thompson, chairman of the ways and means committee, is of the opinion that the Democrats are preparing to knock the head out of a "barrel" in an effort to retain the executive branch of the government and to regain control of the legislative branch.

The Republican committee will receive contributions in limited amounts. Up to the present time no contributions have been received in excess of $1,000. Colonel Thompson said that some contributions of over $1,000 offered had been declined.

GREEK TURK WAR THREATENES EUROPE SAYS LATE REPORT

Turkish Nationalists To Star Drive On Greek
Army.

Constantinople, June 26.—Warfare between the Greeks and the Turkish nationalists threatens to spread from Anatolia. (Turkey in Asia) to Europe. Word was received at British headquarters today that the Turkish nationalists in Thrace are preparing for a drive against the Greeks.

After suffering a series of defeats
east and northwest of Smyrna, the Turkish nationalists have withdrawn
to a point 30 miles east of Smyrna,
where they are concentrating a counter offensive against the Greeks. It is expected that Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the chief leader of the nationalists will direct the operation in person.

Belief is maintained in some quarters here that there is no chance of the sublime port relaxing its determination not to sign the peace treaty
so long as the Greeks retain Smyrna and Thrace.

The sultan has telegraphed to Grand Vizier Damad Ferid Pasha,
head of the Turkish peace delegation
at Paris not to commit the Turkish government to a definite pledge until Resha Djamil Pasha arrives with the Turkish reply next week.

SCENE OF FIGHTING IN LONDONDERRY

A general view of the City of Londonderry, Ireland, which was the scene of terrific street fighting between the Unionists and Nationalists recently. Fifteen people were killed and many more wounded in the fighting. British troops are now occupying the city and martial law has been declared. According to reports from Londonderry, women and children joined in the fighting,
which lasted for two days.

WILSON - BRYAN FACTIONS BEGIN FIGHT FOR CONTROL

Both Sides Admit Choice of Presidential Nominee Depends Largely Upon Platform; Treaty and "Wet
and Dry" Issue Paramount.

San Francisco, June 26.—The battle between the two principal adversaries face to face for the first time in the convention city, the real fight for control of the party began—the clan of President Wilson on one side, the clan of W. J. Bryan on the other.

Both sides admit that the choice of a Democratic nominee for president depends very largely upon the platform,
so the terrific but invisible struggle
which reached full swing here today centered about the shaping of the document. Chief of the points in dispute, of course, is the treaty the "wet" and
"dry" running it a close second.

Bryan arrived here last night. Today bright and early, he got down to business at his headquarters on the

WAGE BOARD PLAN MAY AVERT STRIKE IS PRESENT BELIEF

Twenty Two Per Cent
Increase Is Amount
Rumored.

Chicago, June 26.—Belief that the general strike of railroaders set for Monday by the "rebel" leaders has been averted by the announcement of the railway labor board that a wage award would be announced by July 20, was expressed today by members of the board and chiefs
of the big railroad brotherhoods.

It was persistently rumored that the award would give the rail workers a boost of approximately 22 per cent.

While the brotherhood chiefs would make no predictions as to what would happen Monday in the case of the "outlaws"—the men who went out in the recent unauthorized strike men and yardmen's strike
—they expressed confidence that the board's announcement of the date for making known the award
would be a tremendous aid in helping them to prevent a break in the "outlaws" on the part of the regular brotherhood members who have been threatening such a coup as a protest against the board's delay.

Leaders of the "outlaws" were not inclined to regard the board's announcement as a satisfactory answer to their demands, declaring that the men "were fed up on promises"
and that conditions "would be a lot worse by time July 20 swings around."

LOCAL FREIGHT AGENT RESIGNS POSITION

Stephen C. Beyke, who served as freight agent for the Dayton, Springfield and Xenia Southern Traction Company in Xenia for 14 years, ever since the establishment of the office here, has resigned, and is planning to go to northern Michigan to locate. His place as freight agent has been taken by Don Clarke.

Mr. Beyke is a sufferer from hay fever, and this climate is unhealthful
for him. He is planning to re-enter the flour milling business, in which he had a number of years experience,
and expects to go to Michigan in about a week or ten days, to seek a location.

M'ADOO PREFERRED FINAL CHOICE OF DEMOCRATIC DELEGATES NOW

NATIONAL WOMEN'S PARTY WILL PICKET SENATOR HARDING DURING MARION VISIT

Suffragists From Every State In Union Will Participate
In Activities During Ceremonies Of Formal Announcement.

Washington, June 26.—The national women's party will picket Senator Harding during the ceremonies attending notification of his nomination for president. Alice Paul, formally announced today.

Suffragists from every state in the union will invade Marion, Ohio, the senator's home town, and form a picket line which will surround his home.

"We plan to spend the summer
with Senator Harding," said the militant leader.

It will be a case of "whither thou goest, we go," according to Miss Paul. Pickets will remain with the Republican candidate for president during his stay in Marion and will follow him wherever he goes on his campaign tour, she said. Miss Paul stated she will journey to Ohio to organize the demonstration planned for the notification ceremonies. She will also organize a delegation of Ohio women to meet the senator on his return to his home state for "old home week." She sent telegrams today to members of the national women's party throughout Ohio to prepare to join the delegation.

Leaders of the militants pre-

FAIRBANKS OUT AS CANDIDATE; ACTION IN PARTY'S INTEREST

Springfield Aspirant For Governor's Chair
Withdraws.

Columbus, June 26.—Impelled by a desire to further party harmony, he says, Newton H. Fairbanks of Springfield, Republican candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, announced his withdrawal from the race. In a statement he says:

"While I have believed and still believe my nomination is probable,
yet I question whether I could receive a majority of the votes cast for the office of governor with three other well known candidates in the field. I am convinced that I can do my party, my state and the nation a greater service by withdrawing from the contest and thus making it more probable for an expression of a majority to be obtained for the nominee than by continuing in the race and thereby possibly contributing to the opposite result."

Dispatches from Washington, following a conference of party leaders with Senator Harding, indicated both Cole and Fairbanks might be asked to withdraw in the interest of party harmony.

The withdrawal of Phelps Crum, Cleveland attorney, from the race for the Republican nomination for attorney general, leaves Attorney General Price without opposition at the primary. In a letter to Secretary of State Smith, Crum said he withdrew
"in the interest of party harmony."

Harold C. Smith of Elyria is inclined to resent the efforts being made to have him retire from the Republican primaries and withdraw his name. In an interview Smith denied his candidacy was the result of any purpose to confuse the voters. He declared he would be present at the hearing here Wednesday, dispatches said.

SHERIFF AIDS IN RECOVERY OF STOLEN MACHINE IN XENIA

Cadillac Car Alleged Stolen
In Bloomington Found Here.

Through the assistance of Sheriff Funderburg, Deputy Sheriffs Irvin and Kennedy of Bloomington, Ill., who came to this city this week
in search of a Cadillac touring car stolen from Irvin several days ago, recovered the machine at the Willard storage battery station
here and have returned with it to Bloomington.

It is alleged that three thieves
stole the car in Bloomington, one of them being caught in Anboy, Ill., shortly afterward. The other two were traced to this city where the authorities found the car after it had been abandoned by the thieves following this trouble. No trace has been found of the thieves themselves. The Bloomington Deputy, Irvin and Kennedy returned to Bloomington Friday evening driving the car back.

New York, June 26.—Boston defeated New York yesterday, 6 to 3. Hooper's

Boston runs scored off Quinn. The three runs scored off Pennock were home runs. His drive in the first inning went into the center field bleachers,

it being his longest hit on these grounds.

FRANK L. JOHNSON OUT OF THE RACE

Frank L. Johnson has withdrawn from the race for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney.
His formal notice of withdrawal was filed with Paul H. Creswell, clerk of the Greene county board of elections, Friday evening.

Mr. Johnson's withdrawal leaves

OUTLAW YARDMEN MAY BE BOLSHEVIKI SAYS COLUMBUS MAN

Men Discontented With
Rule of Wm. G. Lee
It Is Said.

Columbus, O., June 26.—That the 365,000 discontented members of the recently organized "outlaw" railroad yardmen associations throughout the United States "may become bolsheviki after all" if a decision is not reached by the federal railroad labor board in ten days is the statement made by E. N. Spates of the Panhandle shop crafts.

Spates' statement was made at a crowded mass meeting held in the Columbia chamber of commerce auditorium when a resolution was unanimously adopted declaring the "Insurgent" railroad workers are ready to return to work, if seniority
rights are guaranteed without discrimination. Copies of this resolution are being forwarded to President Wilson, the Democratic national convention, the interstate commerce commission and to the railway wage board at Chicago.

Charging Wm. G. Lee, president of the railway trainmen with being responsible for the wage board's deadlock, officials of the local yard-men's association said other crafts are willing to strike if necessary to overthrow Lee's "autocratic rule."

These officials claimed only 30,000
men now belong to the brotherhood.

JUDGE JOHNSON IS THOUGHT LOST SPECIAL

Judge James G. Johnson of Springfield, member of the Ohio State Supreme Court, who spoke to a Chamber of Commerce audience
here last winter, was thought to be lost from the Cox special enroute to the Democratic convention in San Francisco Friday.

Judge Johnson, who is to deliver the nominating speech of Governor
Cox, got off the special at Benicia,
Cal., to buy post cards and the train pulled out without him. He arrived in San Francisco a little late but with the nominating speech intact.

HOME AVENUE NOW OPENED TO TRAFFIC

The Republic Asphalt Company,
which has the street paving contract
in this city has opened up Home
Avenue for traffic.

Home avenue was the first street
started on and the concrete base was completed several weeks ago. Since then the street has been blocked to traffic in order to permit the concrete
to properly set.

The street will be left open for use
from now on until the time for laying the asphalt which will probably be in August.

NOTE CONTAINS REPLY

Paris, June 26.—A note containing the substance of the Turkish reply to the allied peace terms, was handed to the foreign office today.

LACK OF DEFINITE DECISION MARKS GENERAL FEELING

More Than Half Of Convention Delegates On Hand.

FIGHT OVER CHAIRMAN

Real Test Of Strength
Between Opposing Forces
Expected.

San Francisco, June 26.—On the eve of the Democratic national convention' painstaking survey of the arrived delegates, numbering more than half of the men and women, who will sit in the auditorium, reveals the unmistakable fact that William Gibbs McAdoo has failed signally to eliminate himself from this race and that on the basis of "drafting," without respect to his personal desires, he is the preferred ultimate choice of the majority of delegates here.

That is the outstanding feature of today's convention news, but it is hedged about by many curious circumstances which tend to qualify it and to create a state of remarkable uncertainty which makes prophesy absurd.

No man knows what action the convention will take regarding candidates.
There is no audible sound of a master voice. The babble of opinion in the hotel corridors is genuinely confused.

There are other candidates, to be sure,
but it is remarkable that one hears
more reasons against their selection than for them, and gossip concerning some of them is unpleasant to the polite ear, family skeletons not being neglected, among other things.

The first real test of strength between the administration and its opposition will be over the selection of the permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention.

The administration program calls
for the election of Secretary of State Colby as permanent chairman. Colonel Bryan wants Senator Walsh of Montana. The Democratic old guard is for National Chairman Cummings,
who also will be temporary chairman,
while Senator Robinson of Arkansas
is being suggested as a possible compromise.

Of the three leading candidates for the presidential nomination, none is within shouting distance of the requisite two-thirds majority, and it looks as if it would take considerable balloting to bring any of them within reach of a simple majority.

Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here with the Pennsylvania delegation 75 out of 76 strong for Palmer and immediately claiming the victory, is likely to poll more votes on the first ballot than any aspirant, but he really is the weakest of the field on the basis of present reckoning. He might be put over by the administration, but there is no sign up to date that the administration harbors any such intention.

William G. McAdoo is said to be the choice of the federal officeholders,
international bankers and the railroad and other labor interests.

In potential strength Governor Cox
of Ohio leads in all pre-convention calculations. He has benefited distinctly from the solidification of the forces determined to prevent the selection of McAdoo. In this contin-gent are included the New York, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio delegations and most of New England and the delegates controlled by Jim Nugent of New Jersey, Fred Lynch of Minnesota and other leaders opposed to the administration and favorable to a candidate whose views are "liberal" on the prohibition issue.

MRS. MARY M'CANN DIES FRIDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Mary McCann, aged 75 years, died at 10:30 Friday night at the

SOLDIER RELIEF WILL PLAY LARGE PART WITH G.O.P.

Harding Will Give Matter Very Careful Consideration.

TO AVOID SCANDAL

Post-Election Talk Of Money Spending To Be Avoided.

Washington, June 26.—Soldier legislation will be an important piece in Senator Harding's speech of acceptance. The soldier vote will be given careful and tender treatment by the Harding campaign managers and every effort will be made to win them to the support of the Republican ticket.

Senator Harding conferred for more than an hour with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Jr., who is prominent in the councils of organizations representing the A. E. F. Following that conference the senator devoted hours last night at his home to whipping into shape for his acceptance speech, many thoughts he has gathered from conversations with his visitors. He resumed these labors this morning and was late in arriving at his office.

Senator Harding is being held responsible by other Republican leaders of the senate for the failure of the bonus bill to pass, according to these reports. It is understood that discussion of the sentiment of the ex-soldiers toward the Republican ticket and steps necessary to be taken to remove resentment was made as important a feature of the Harding-Roosevelt conferences as the feeling toward the ticket of Roosevelt progressives.

NATURE NOT KNOWN
The nature of the assurances of assistance, the former service men will receive has not been indicated by Senator Harding. It is safe to predict, however, that he will stand by his pre-convention position of urging for the ex-soldier fair and just compensation and liberal recompense for their losses during the war.

Efforts are being made by Senator Harding to keep money scandals out of the campaign and to prevent the after election charge that "the election was bought." His pre-convention campaign was financed on small contributions voluntarily offered by his friends and in large part by his fellow townsmen of Marion, Ohio. He has urged the Republican campaign managers that they keep down the expenditures in the general campaign and that they invite small contributions.

This plan is to be followed by the national committee, although Col. William Boyce Thompson, chairman of the ways and means committee, is of the opinion that the Democrats are preparing to knock the head out of a "barrel" in an effort to retain the executive branch of the government and to regain control of the legislative branch.

The Republican committee will receive contributions in limited amounts. Up to the present time no contributions have been received in excess of $1,000. Colonel Thompson said that some contributions of over $1,000 offered had been declined.

WILSON - BRYAN FACTIONS BEGIN FIGHT FOR CONTROL

Both Sides Admit Choice of Presidential Nominee Depends Largely Upon Platform; Treaty and "Wet and Dry" Issue Paramount.

San Francisco, June 26.—The battle is on. Today with nearly all the principal adversaries face to face for the first time in the convention city, the real fight for control of the party began—the clan of President Wilson on one side, the clan of W. J. Bryan on the other.

Both sides admit that the choice of a Democratic nominee for president depends largely upon the platform, so the terrific but invisible struggle which reached full swing here today centered about the shaping of the document. Chief of the points in dispute, of course, is the treaty the "wet" and "dry" running it a close second.

Bryan arrived here last night. Today bright and early, he got down to business at his headquarters on the second floor of the St. Francis hotel. He at once took off his coat and in his shirt sleeves received the callers who came through the door of number 230 in a never-ending stream.

The Commoner, it is known, will lead the fight for a treaty plank calling for whatever reservations necessary to secure immediate ratification. He will be the member of the resolution committee from Nebraska, and will open up with his guns there. If he fails to get what he wants in committee, it is understood he will carry the fight to the floor, of the convention where spectacular things will happen.

"The opposition to a treaty plank endorsing the league without reservations," he declared, "is so strong that an effort is being made to find some middle ground. But the success of the effort is not flattering."

"If your efforts in the committee on resolutions are not successful as you wish, will you carry the fight to the floor of the Auditorium?" he was asked.

"I would rather not discuss that now," he said. The commoner could not be persuaded to reveal his methods of attack, particularly where the treaty was more conversational.

"At the present writing," the interest centers in the platform rather than in the candidate, every one recognizing that the availability of the candidates will be materially affected by the platform announcements.

Geiger Heads Teachers.
Cedar Point, O., June 26.—F. W. Geiger, superintendent of schools at East Liverpool, O., was chosen president of the Ohio State Teachers' association.

FIRE DRILLS WILL BE ESTABLISHED TO COMPLY WITH LAW

Plans will be made to form a fire drill organization at the Xenia Shoe Manufacturing Co., in accordance with that fire drills be held monthly in all commission of Ohio, which requires that fire drills be held monthly in all buildings three or more stories in height that are used all or partly for manufacturing purposes.

P. H. Flynn, of the local factory, said Saturday that he had received a notification of the law and that he would make arrangements to comply with it shortly. The fire drill law provides that arrangements be made to empty of all employees within five minutes after the alarm is given.

Exceptions to the rule of monthly drills are in cases where the building is of fire-proof construction, where necessary means of egress have been provided and proper precautions taken to prevent and extinguish fire. In these cases drills need be held but twice each calendar year, except on order of the Industrial Commission.

The law further states that it shall be the duty of every manufacturing establishment required to hold fire drills to appoint one employee as fire chief and one as assistant fire chief, and a captain and assistant captain on each floor. These officers will be made responsible for the fire drills and proper evacuation of the building in case of fire each assisting in emptying the building or that part of it to which he is assigned. The fire chief is also made responsible for shutting off electricity, power and gas in case of an alarm. The officers shall see that fire escapes, stairways and exits are unobstructed and after assisting in emptying their departments, they shall report to the chief. Practice alarms will be conducted in order that the employees shall familiarize themselves with their duties in each case.

FAIRBANKS OUT AS CANDIDATE; ACTION IN PARTY'S INTEREST

Springfield Aspirant For Governor's Chair Withdraws.

Columbus, June 26.—Impelled by a desire to further party harmony, he says, Newton H. Fairbanks of Springfield, Republican candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, announced his withdrawal from the race. In a statement he says:

"While I have believed and still believe my nomination is probable, yet I question whether I could receive a majority of the votes cast for the office of governor with three other well known candidates in the field. I am convinced that I can do my party, my state and the nation a greater service by withdrawing from the contest and thus making it more probable for an expression of a majority to be obtained for the nominee than by continuing in the race and thereby possibly contributing to the opposite result."

Dispatches from Washington, following a conference of party leaders with Senator Harding, indicated both Cole and Fairbanks might be asked to withdraw in the interest of party harmony.

The withdrawal of Phelps Crum, Cleveland attorney, from the race for the Republican nomination for attorney general, leaves Attorney General Price without opposition at the primary. In a letter to Secretary of State Smith, Crum said he withdrew "in the interest of party harmony."

Harold C. Smith of Ellyria is inclined to resent the efforts being made to have him retire from the Republican primaries and withdraw his name. In an interview Smith denied his candidacy was the result of any purpose to confuse the voters. He declared he would be present at the hearing here Wednesday, dispatches said.

SHERIFF AIDS IN RECOVERY OF STOLEN MACHINE IN XENIA

Cadillac Car Alleged Stolen In Bloomington Found Here.

Through the assistance of Sheriff Funderburg, Deputy Sheriffs Irvin and Kennedy of Bloomington, Ill., who came to this city this week in search of a Cadillac touring car stolen from Irvin several days ago, recovered the machine at the Willard storage battery station here and have returned with it to Bloomington.

It is alleged that three thieves stole the car in Bloomington, one of them being caught in Amboy, Ill., shortly afterward. The other two were traced to this city where the authorities found the car after it had been abandoned by the thieves following this trouble. No trace has been found of the thieves themselves. The Bloomington Deputies, Irvin and Kennedy returned to Bloomington Friday evening driving the car back.

Twenty-two For Ruth.

New York, June 26.—Boston defeated New York yesterday, 6 to 3. Hooper's hitting accounted for three of the Boston runs scored off Quinn. The three runs scored off Pennock were due to home runs, Ruth getting two and Peck one. Ruth now has hit 22 home runs. His drive in the first inning went into the center field bleachers, it being his longest hit on these grounds.

LACK OF DEFINITE DECISION MARKS GENERAL FEELING

More Than Half Of Convention Delegates On Hand.

FIGHT OVER CHAIRMAN

Real Test Of Strength Between Opposing Forces Expected.

San Francisco, June 26.—On the eve of the Democratic national convention painstaking survey of the arrived delegates, numbering more than half of the men and women, who will sit in the auditorium, reveals the unmistakable fact that William Gibbs McAdoo has failed signally to eliminate himself from this race and that on the basis of "drafting," without respect to his personal desires, he is the preferred ultimate choice of the majority of delegates here.

That is the outstanding feature of today's convention news, but it is hedged about by many curious circumstances which tend to qualify it and to create a state of remarkable uncertainty which makes prophesy absurd.

No man knows what action the convention will take regarding candidates. There is no audible sound of a master voice. The babble of opinion in the hotel corridors is genuinely confused. There are other candidates, to be sure, but it is remarkable that one hears more reasons against their selection than for them, and gossip concerning some of them is unpleasant to the polite ear, family skeletons not being neglected, among other things.

The first real test of strength between the administration and its opposition will be over the selection of the permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention.

The administration program calls for the election of Secretary of State Colby as permanent chairman. Colonel Bryan wants Senator Walsh of Montana. The Democratic old guard is for National Chairman Cummings, who also will be temporary chairman, while Senator Robinson of Arkansas is being suggested as a possible compromise.

Of the three leading candidates for the presidential nomination, none is within shouting distance of the requisite two-thirds majority, and it looks as if it would take considerable balloting to bring any of them within reach of a simple majority.

Attorney General Palmer, who arrived here with the Pennsylvania delegation 75 out of 76 strong for Palmer and immediately claiming the victory, is likely to poll more votes on the first ballot than any aspirant, but he really is the weakest of the field on the basis of present reckoning. He might be put over by the administration, but there is no sign up to date that the administration harbors any such intention.

William G. McAdoo is said to be the choice of the federal officeholders, international bankers and the railroad and other labor interests.

In potential strength Governor Coe of Ohio leads in all pre-convention calculations. He has benefited distinctly from the solidification of the forces determined to prevent the selection of McAdoo. In this contingent are included the New York, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio delegations and most of New England and the delegates controlled by Jim Nugent of New Jersey, Fred Lynch of Minnesota and other leaders opposed to the administration and favorable to a candidate whose views are "liberal" on the prohibition issue.

MRS. MARY M'CANN DIES FRIDAY NIGHT

Mrs. Mary McCann, aged 75 years, died at 10:30 Friday night at the home of her son, Thomas McCann on Vine street.

For ten years Mrs. McCann had been an invalid the result of a fall which caused an injury to the hip and she had been confined to her bed. She was the widow of Michael McCann and had lived in Yellow Springs prior to moving to Xenia, five years ago. She is survived by her son Thomas and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Doyle of Xenia. Funeral services will be held Monday at 8:30 at St. Bridget's.

FRANK L. JOHNSON OUT OF THE RACE

Frank L. Johnson has withdrawn from the race for the Republican nomination for prosecuting attorney. His formal notice of withdrawal was filed with Paul H. Creswell, clerk of the Greene county board of elections, Friday evening.

Mr. Johnson's withdrawal leaves the field clear to J. Kenneth Williamson. Both Mr. Johnson and Mr. Williamson were attending the picnic of the Federal Bar Association at Kilkare Park Saturday, and could not be

BUBONIC PLAGUE IN VERA CRUZ TAKES NEW TURN; SERIOUS

Vera Cruz, June 26.—The bubonic plague situation took an unexpected serious turn today. It was learned that many persons in outlying towns have been hiding suspected cases of the plague so that the victims would not be sent to the Lazaretto on the island of Sacrificé. It is declared that only one patient of all the number that was sent to the island was known to return. In some quarters, charges of neglect are being made against the doctors and nurses at the lazaretto.

Several persons were wounded on Thursday when soldiers entered a house to remove by force a young girl who was suffering from a suspected case of the plague.

Three new cases of the plague and one death were officially reported Thursday.

"One Greek regiment killed fifty Turks. Our losses were 21 killed and 109 wounded."

GOVERNMENT ORDER ON EMPTYING CARS TAKES SUNDAY WORK

Xenia coal dealers will have to work on Sundays as well as Mondays from now on.

A railroad ruling requiring that coal cars received shall be emptied within twenty-four hours went into effect this week. The ruling is similar to one required of coal dealers a year ago, when coal was scarce.

According to this ruling coal dealers receiving coal must empty them immediately and have them ready to be moved again within twenty-four hours. If several cars arrive at the same time the burden on the coal dealers is increased. If cars arrive on Saturday or Sunday it is a case of working on Sunday in order to comply with the railroad orders.

GAS COMPANY ASKS INCREASED RATES IN WILMINGTON, REPORT

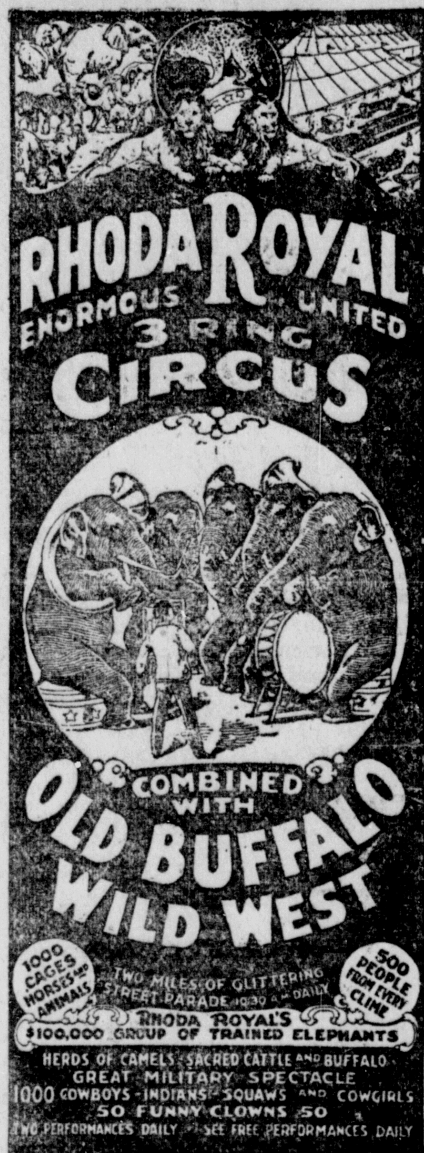

Appeals for permission to increase rates were made simultaneously to the city council of Wilmington at this week's meeting by the Wilmington Gaslight and Coke Co., a Wilmington concern, and the Dayton Power and Light Company, which operates a branch in Wilmington as it does here and supplies the power from Dayton.

The Wilmington Gaslight and Coke Co. is asking for increase to $2 per 1,000 feet while officials of the Dayton Power and Light Co., present made a request for an amendment to the ordinance that fixes the light and power rates, so that a substantial increase in the rates of the company could be provided for. The company asks for a rate that would increase the revenue of the Wilmington operating deficit of $12,000 annually on branch $10,000 to offset an operating deficit of $12,000 annually.

A committee appointed from the city council to confer with a committee from the Commercial club will take the proposition under advisement.

Remember—the marvelous instrument used in New York City was an exact duplicate of the original Official Laboratory Model, which cost Mr. Edison three million dollars in research work. We, too, have an exact duplicate of the famous three million dollar original. We guarantee that it is capable of sustaining all the astonishing tests made on March 10th, at Carnegie Hall, New York City.

The NEW EDISON

"A portion of the demonstration was even carried on without the lights, so that no one could see whether Miss Case's lips moved or not. It was all genuinely instructive, and the twin-ship between Miss Case's singing, and the reproduction thereof, proved so close as to be often indistinguishable."—New York Globe.

"When you see and hear Miss Case sing, you can scarcely believe that an art so essentially individual and personal as hers could ever be reproduced mechanically, yet the New Edison has succeeded to the point where the voice in the fluffy pink draperies and the voice in the mahogany box seemed one and the same."—New York Evening Mail.

"When the lights were lowered, it was impossible to tell when it was Anna Case, and when it was only her voice that was singing."—New York Evening Sun.

The "dark scene" test was positively sensational in its proof of the realism of the New Edison.

Anna Case, the world-famed soprano, stood beside a dignified Chippendale cabinet. She started to sing. Her voice enthralled the audience with its colorful brilliance.

Suddenly the lights went out. Densest black swallowed stage, phonograph and singer.

When you come in, ask about our Budget Plan. It makes the dollar go farther—the New Edison came easier.

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

But Miss Case's voice went smoothly on. It rose to the very heights of its superb artistry.

Then, the lights flashed on!

The audience gasped with astonishment. Case was gone! Her voice had been coming from the New Edison.

Under cover of the darkness, Miss Case had stolen from the platform, leaving the New Edison to continue her song alone. The audience never knew she had gone, till the lights went up.

The exact duplicate of this instrument is here in our store, waiting to prove its perfect realism to you.

Eminent Geologist Issued Warning of Natural Gas Shortage Almost a Year Ago

In October, 1919, Prof. I. C. White, State Geologist of West Virginia, prepared a paper warning the natural gas men of the rapid exhaustion of Ohio's natural gas resources. His paper was read at the meeting of The Ohio Gas & Oil Men's Association in convention at Columbus. One statement he made was that:

THREE-QUARTERS OF THE ORIGINAL SUPPLY OF NATURAL GAS IN THE APPALACHIAN FIELDS IS ALREADY EXHAUSTED—OF THE PORTION USED FOR DOMESTIC PURPOSES AT LEAST 70 TO 80 PER CENT IS NOW WASTED THROUGH THE USE OF CRUDE BURNERS.

PEPSINCO

Don't burn good fuel in a poor stove

It's a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is Pepsinco.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Says Nothing Like Plain Argo-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Solid, Stay There Flesh and Muscle and Increase Strength, Vim, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will increase weight, strength and endurance like organic phosphate commonly known by druggists as argo-phosphate; it is inexpensive and is sold by all leading druggists every where under a guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. Weakness and thinness are usually due to starved nervous conditions.

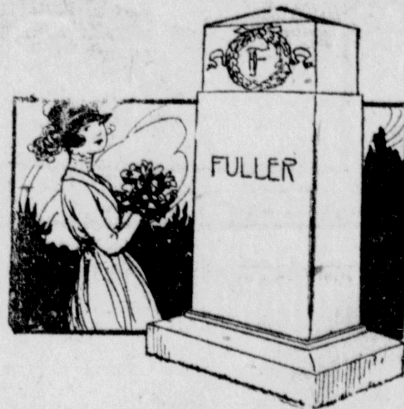

Our bodies need more phosphates than are contained in the foods we eat. If you wish a more rounded figure and plump well-developed arms, neck and bust in place of hollows you should simply take plain argo-phosphate as it builds up and restores run-down nervous conditions by phosphatizing the system. It transforms the appearance and an increase in weight is often times quickly produced.

The increase in weight also aids in improving the general health. Sleeplessness, nervousness, lack of energy and ambition quickly disappear.

Pale cheeks are changed to rosy ones and dull eyes become bright.

Miss Lena Brown of Atlanta, Ga., who only weighed 90 pounds reports that she gained 10 pounds in two weeks time and says argo-phosphate has made a different person of her and she has never felt better in her life.

"GREENIES" BEING SWINDLED OUT OF MILLIONS BY WILD-CAT OIL WELL SCHEMES.

This paper has taken frequent occasion to warn its readers against wild-cat schemes in the shape of so-called oil companies, the stock of which they were solicited to buy.

The stories of the making of "big money" from honest oil wells have been calculated to foster the creation of fake companies by the hundred.

And, sorry to say, some people of good reputation have so far smirched their characters as to engage in the sale of such stock.

Without undertaking to give the details, we quote only the heading of a long New York article in a Friday morning daily paper, as follows: "Millions taken by concerns in sale of Wild-Cat Oil Stock; Fourteen persons and fifty firms accused in indictments obtained by Federal Agents; Shares disposed of in New York at $3 are alleged to have cost Brokers but 7 1/2 cents."

In many cases stock of so-called oil companies has been sold, when in fact not a well had been dug.

The promise of big dividends has induced many a person to let go their good money.

Xenia can testify to this, when twenty years ago she gladly invested $200,000 in the Durango Iron Mountain scheme, not one dime of which ever came back.

So it will be with many of the oil well schemes now being so readily bitten for by thoughtless people, lured by the promise of big dividends.

And it is not alone oil well schemes, but numerous other "gold brick" allurements that are being widely advertised and strongly pushed upon an unsuspecting public.

"Keep your eyes skinned," look before you leap in letting go your good dollars with the promise of big dividends.

A thousand times better invest in something you know all about—as for instance a prospective home in the Dodds Addition to Xenia.

PENROSE PREDICTS LANDSLIDE FOR HARDING—SAN FRANCISCO CONVENTION WORST BOSSSED EVER.

In a statement issued Wednesday by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in connection with his acceptance of a place on the National Republican Committee, he says: "I look for the election of the Republican ticket by a landslide vote."

"All of the indications are that the San Francisco convention will be the worst bossed political body that ever assembled in this country."

"With six cabinet officers and other payroll statesmen on the ground, and the platform written at the White House, it will be a convention of intimidation, a Wilson convention in which the delegates, largely officeholders, will take orders from Washington."

"The people now, more than ever before, are demanding a change in governmental affairs. The problems that confront the country today must be worked out by an administration of character and resourcefulness."

"The election of Senator Harding will restore the confidence of the country in its public men. He has been likened to William McKinley, and accurately so, for he is a man of McKinley's constructive ability and solid qualities of statesmanship. His activities as a public man have not been limited to the realm of rhetoric, nor is he a political leader with the ambition of a dictator. With him in the White House there will be entire harmony between the executive and legislative branches of the government; they will work together in solving the problems of reconstruction."

"From the beginning I considered Senator Harding an ideal candidate, and I predict that as the campaign progresses he will grow stronger constantly with the people. He possesses personal magnetism, and as a vote getter I do not know his equal in the Republican party."

OUR VICE PRESIDENTS WHO HAVE BECOME PRESIDENTS.

William Henry Harrison was elected President and held the office but a month in 1841, and dying was succeeded by a Vice President who happened to be John Tyler, who was wholly unfit for the duties and the responsibilities of the great office.

When General Zachary Taylor was elected in 1848 Millard Fillmore was on the ticket for Vice President. The President died and Fillmore became President, and his party, the old Whig party died with him.

In 1864 Lincoln was nominated for a second term, with Andrew Johnson as Vice President. In a little more than a month after his nomination he was assassinated, and Johnson succeeded to the presidency. Johnson was a man of ability and integrity, but was not temperamentally equipped for the office at that particular time. There were men in Congress who opposed him, got up a quarrel with him and made for him as unhappy a lot as they knew how.

President Garfield was assassinated four months after his inauguration and was succeeded by Chester A. Arthur, a man who had been but a politician, nominated on the ticket with Garfield, said to have been done to placate Senator Conkling, then in the zenith of his glory. For President Arthur it is due to say that in assuming the office he realized the weight of responsibility, and he made a very much better President than had been expected, and in doing so lost favor with some who had been yoke-fellows with him in politics.

In a few days over six months from the date of his inauguration President McKinley was assassinated and Theodore Roosevelt became the President. When the news came of McKinley's death millions of Americans felt thankful that Roosevelt had been elected Vice President. His administration was so popular, his party nominated him for President in 1904, and he was overwhelmingly elected. After serving the greater portion of his term to which McKinley was elected and a full term in his own right, there were hundreds of thousands who wanted him again.

In the selection of Calvin Coolidge as the Republican candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Senator Harding the convention at Chicago did something that has met with a most cordial response all over the country.

It is hoped that when elected and inaugurated as President, Harding may live and be strong throughout his administration. However, life is uncertain. If in the course of events Governor Coolidge as Vice President should be called to the higher place, everybody knows that he would be a good President; that he is not only worthy but that he is well qualified. In saying this of Governor Coolidge no proof is necessary other than his past record. In whatever station he has served, he has proved himself to be the man for the hour.

HE MIGHT HAVE IT MUZZLED, BUT THERE IS STILL A PAIR OF WICKED HEELS TO BE RECKONED WITH

THE WINNERS.

Have you read the helpful stories which are printed now and then, dishing up the dazzling glories of the big successful men? This one made a million dollars, that one made a million seeds; so the awestruck author hollers, as he celebrates their deeds. This one's living in a palace, built of pink imported rock, and from out a golden chalice he consumes his private stock. And I think it rather funny, and I think it rather odd, that the measure's always money, always is the big man's wad. For there are some four-time winners you have heard of once or twice, men who went without their dinners when they couldn't raise the price; and I hold them great successes though they never had a roll, though privations and distresses kept them always in the hole. And I'd rather stagger under the renown of Edgar Poe than be burdened with the plunder of the biggest plute I know. And poor Bobbie Burns was busted till they put him in a crate, but I'll surely be disgusted if you say he wasn't great. We should cautious be in choosing those who win and those who fail, for the gent who's surely losing may be loaded down with kale.

RICHARDS DEFEATS STEWART ON TENTH

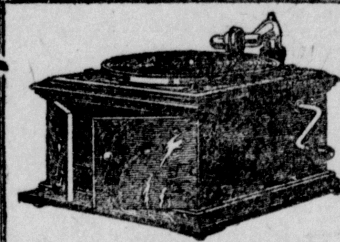

Blockie Richards, of Dayton, defeated Walter "Goo" Stewart, of Wheeling, W. Va., at the Dayton Gymnastic Club Friday evening, receiving the decision over Stewart at the end of their ten round mill.

In the second ten round bout Bernie Hahn, of Wheeling, and Kid Dayton, of Dayton, fought a clever draw that won the applause of the fans. Don Curley of Indianapolis, and Babe Framby, of Cincinnati, boxed a ten round draw as the preliminary.

J. W. Pettiford of East Market street reported to police Saturday morning that his nephew, Alonzo Smith, aged 9, who makes his home with his uncle, had been attacked by a dog, the animal tearing the child's clothes and inflicting teeth wounds in his leg.

Judge Wannamaker, of Columbus, of the State Supreme Court, candidate for U. S. Senator and Judge W. N. Kennon, of St. Clairsville, who is a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court, visited friends here Saturday before going to Kilkare Park where they will attend the picnic of the Montgomery County Bar Association.

Abner Doubleday was the man who fired the first gun shot in defense of Fort Sumpter and who consequently was the man who opened hostilities for the North in the Civil War.

He was born in New York in 1819 and graduated from West Point when he was 23. He held the rank of first lieutenant in the Mexican War and then for 15 years fought the Apache Indians and the Florida Indians. He was in Fort Sumpter in 1861 as one of the commanding officers and aimed the first gun fired in its defense on that memorable April 12th.

At Shennandoah he drove Lee's army over the river but was badly defeated at the second battle of Bull Run. He lost at Antietam but got away with six enemy flags. The first day of the battle of Gettysburg he and his men were forced back to Cemetery Ridge, the second day they retook six captured guns; on the third day Doubleday got his front line at the weak point of the enemy's army and drove it far back.

After the war he resumed Indian fighting and went to San Francisco where he laid the cable for the first cable street railway. He retired from active service and settled in Morristown, New Jersey where he died when he was 74.

ORDINANCE NO. 133

To Prohibit the Establishment or Maintenance of Privy Vaults or Cesspools Within Five Hundred Feet of a Water Supply Well.

Be it Ordained by the City Commission of the City of Xenia, State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, persons or corporation, or its agent, to establish or maintain any privy vault, cesspool, or any possible source of contamination of water supply within Five Hundred (500) feet of any water supply wells.

SECTION 2. Any person, persons or corporation, or its agent or agents, who shall violate the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than Fifty Dollars ($50.00), and each day's continuance thereof shall be a separate and distinct offense.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.

Passed this 24th day of June, 1920.

"GREENIES" BEING SWINDLED OUT OF MILLIONS BY WILD-CAT OIL WELL SCHEMES.

This paper has taken frequent occasion to warn its readers against wild-cat schemes in the shape of so-called oil companies, the stock of which they were solicited to buy.

The stories of the making of "big money" from honest oil wells have been calculated to foster the creation of fake companies by the hundred.

And, sorry to say, some people of good reputation have so far smirched their characters as to engage in the sale of such stock.

Without undertaking to give the details, we quote only the heading of a long New York article in a Friday morning daily paper, as follows: "Millions taken in sale of Wild-Cat Oil Stock; Fourteen persons and fifty firms accused in indictments obtained by Federal Agents; Shares disposed of in New York at $3 are alleged to have cost Brokers but 7 1/2 cents."

In many cases stock of so-called oil companies has been sold, when in fact not a well had been dug.

The promise of big dividends has induced many a person to let go their good money.

Xenia can testify to this, when twenty years ago she gladly invested $200,000 in the Durango Iron Mountain scheme, not one dime of which ever came back.

So it will be with many of the oil well schemes now being so readily bitten for by thoughtless people, lured by the promise of big dividends.

And it is not alone oil well schemes, but numerous other "gold brick" alluresments that are being widely advertised and strongly pushed upon an unsuspecting public.

"Keep your eyes skinned," look before you leap in letting go your good dollars with the promise of big dividends.

A thousand times better invest in something you know all about—as for instance a prospective home in the Dodds Addition to Xenia.

PENROSE PREDICTS LANDSLIDE FOR HARDING—SAN FRANCISCO CONVENTION WORST BOSSSED EVER.

In a statement issued Wednesday by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in connection with his acceptance of a place on the National Republican Committee, he says: "I look for the election of the Republican ticket by a landslide vote."

"All of the indications are that the San Francisco convention will be the worst bossed political body that ever assembled in this country."

"With six cabinet officers and other payroll statesmen on the ground, and the platform written at the White House, it will be a convention of intimidation, a Wilson convention in which the delegates, largely officeholders, will take orders from Washington."

"The people now, more than ever before, are demanding a change in governmental affairs. The problems that confront the country today must be worked out by an administration of character and resourcefulness."

"The election of Senator Harding will restore the confidence of the country in its public men. He has been likened to William McKinley, and accurately so, for he is a man of McKinley's constructive ability and solid qualities of statesmanship. His activities as a public man have not been limited to the realm of rhetoric, nor is he a political leader with the ambition of a dictator. With him in the White House there will be entire harmony between the executive and legislative branches of the government; they will work together in solving the problems of reconstruction."

"From the beginning I considered Senator Harding an ideal candidate, and I predict that as the campaign progresses he will grow stronger constantly with the people. He possesses personal magnetism, and as a vote getter I do not know his equal in the Republican party."

OUR VICE PRESIDENTS WHO HAVE BECOME PRESIDENTS.

William Henry Harrison was elected President and held the office but a month in 1841, and dying was succeeded by a Vice President who happened to be John Tyler, who was wholly unfit for the duties and the responsibilities of the great office.

When General Zachary Taylor was elected in 1848 Millard Fillmore was on the ticket for Vice President. The President died and Fillmore became President, and his party, the old Whig party died with him.

In 1864 Lincoln was nominated for a second term, with Andrew Johnson as Vice President. In a little more than a month after his nomination he was assassinated, and Johnson succeeded to the presidency. Johnson was a man of ability and integrity, but was not temperamentally equipped for the office at that particular time. There were men in Congress who opposed him, got up a quarrel with him and made for him as unhappy a lot as they knew how.

President Garfield was assassinated four months after his inauguration and was succeeded by Chester A. Arthur, a man who had been but a politician, nominated on the ticket with Garfield, said to have been done to placate Senator Conkling, then in the zenith of his glory. For President Arthur it is due to say that in assuming the office he realized the weight of responsibility, and he made a very much better President than had been expected, and in doing so lost favor with some who had been yoke-fellows with him in politics.

In a few days over six months from the date of his inauguration President McKinley was assassinated and Theodore Roosevelt became the President. When the news came of McKinley's death millions of Americans felt thankful that Roosevelt had been elected Vice President. His administration was so popular, his party nominated him for President in 1904, and he was overwhelmingly elected. After serving the greater portion of his term to which McKinley was elected and a full term in his own right, there were hundreds of thousands who wanted him again.

In the selection of Calvin Coolidge as the Republican candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Senator Harding the convention at Chicago did something that has met with a most cordial response all over the country.

It is hoped that when elected and inaugurated as President, Harding may live and be strong throughout his administration. However, life is uncertain. If in the course of events Governor Coolidge as Vice President should be called to the higher place, everybody knows that he would be a good President; that he is not only worthy but that he is well qualified. In saying this of Governor Coolidge no proof is necessary other than his past record. In whatever station he has served, he has proved himself to be the man for the hour.

Beauty Chats

The hardest thing in the world, I sometimes think, is to make a woman persist in any beneficial treatment. Perhaps I am hard on my sex—it might be quite as difficult to make a man persist in any course of treatment to improve his health or his appearance. In the few cases that I have treated, however, I found the men anxious to be told what to do and faithful in the doing—perhaps because their cases were always rather serious in the beginning.

And the hardest thing of all is to make the girl with a blotched skin, or the woman with too much flesh, remain on a proper diet. I wonder sometimes whether the stomach is king of all the organs in the body? It seems to be so often. It really should be the easiest and simplest thing in the world to go without too much food, or to go without certain pet delicacies—it takes no extra time, it's no extra trouble. Yet the girl who wants to get rid of pimples, will spend hours—that might be better employed in plastering antiseptic pastes over her face, when she would get much better results by cutting out some foods from what she eats. And so it is with the fat woman.

Now the fat woman is usually harder to treat, the fatter she is. Flesh seems to creep around the soul, and to overburden and crush the will. Did you read about the reduction class started in Chicago? A lot of women dropped out of that—yet those who stayed in lost weight every day. The stout

The hardest thing in the world, I sometimes think, is to make a woman persist in any beneficial treatment. Perhaps I am hard on my sex—it might be quite as difficult to make a man persist in any course of treatment to improve his health or his appearance. In the few cases that I have treated, however, I found the men anxious to be told what to do and faithful in the doing—perhaps because their cases were always rather serious in the beginning.

And the hardest thing of all is to make the girl with a blotched skin, or the woman with too much flesh, remain on a proper diet. I wonder sometimes whether the stomach is king of all the organs in the body? It seems to be—often. It really should be the easiest and simplest thing in the world to go without too much food, or to go without certain pet delicacies—it takes no extra time, it's no extra trouble. Yet the girl who wants to get rid of pimples, will spend hours—that might be better employed—in plastering anti-septic pastes over her face, when she would get much better results by cutting out some foods from what she eats. And so it is with the fat woman.

Now the fat woman is usually harder to treat, the fatter she is. Flesh seems to creep around the soul, and to overburden and crush the will. Did you read about the reduction class started in Chicago? A lot of women dropped out of that—yet those who stayed in lost weight every day. The stout

ZIMMERMAN

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Zimmerman and Rev. Aaron Coy attended the annual conference of the Church of the Brethren in Missouri last week.

Mrs. Nettie Moler, of Springfield, spent several days at the home of her father, Mr. Cornelius Zimmerman, during the latter's absence. Her son Ralph Moler and bride, Hazel Stewart, were her guests Saturday night and Sunday.

Mary and Thomas Harshman and Austin Long and baby sister, are recovering from measles.

Mrs. Homer Koogler, who has been very ill for several weeks, is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Breidenour, near Van-Talia, for an indefinite stay. She was a patient at Miami Valley Hospital several days.

Friends of Mrs. Mary A. Schantz were grieved to learn of her death which occurred in Cleveland. The funeral was held at her home at Shoup's Station Friday afternoon and burial at Woodland cemetery. All of her children were present except her son Ed.

Mrs. Schantz had been sick for over a year, and for several months had not been able to return to her place at Shoup's Station, spending the winter at the home of her sons and her sisters. She was a real gentlewoman, noble and kind, and endeared herself alike to friends and neighbors. Her husband, John Schantz, well known owner of the old Beaver Mill, died several years ago. Mrs. Schantz, whose maiden name was Shaffer, was of German descent. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Harbine Hagenbuch, of Sulphur Lick, Indiana; four sons, Carl, "Charlie" of Buffalo; Ed, George and Arthur, and several grandchildren.

Mrs. Amy Gray passed away at her home at Zimmerman Sunday night, after a long illness of cancer of the breast. The funeral was preached Wednesday afternoon at the Conservative Dunkard church, by Rev. Jerome Schultz, and burial at Mt. Zion.

Mrs. Gray leaves six children, Mrs. Ed Long, Miss Martha, Clifford, Myrtle, Frances and Harold, and two grand children, a sister, Mrs. John Bull, and two brothers, Ed and Newton Coy. Her husband, Frank Gray, her father, Adam Coy, and her brother, Frank Coy died a few years ago.

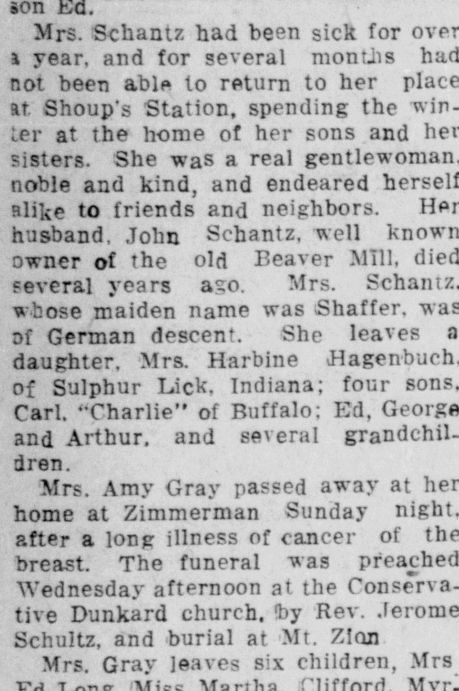

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gartrell, of Old Town, were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Canaday, at Shoup's Station, Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Stewart and daughter, Mildred, are enjoying a new player piano, recently purchased.

Miss Echert, of Dayton, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Irene Duffy, at Shoup's Station.

Loren Carpenter and daughter, Miss Irene, spent Sunday with friends living on the Cincinnati pike.

Dinner Stories

"Frances," said the little girl's mother, who was entertaining callers, "you come downstairs so noisily that you could be heard all over the house. Now go back and come downstairs like a lady!"

After a few moments Frances re-entered the room. "Did you hear me come downstairs this time, mother?"

"No, dear; I am glad you came down quietly. Tell these ladies how you managed to come down like a lady the second time, when the first time you made such a noise."

"The second time I slid down the banisters," explained Frances.

George, three years of age, appeared on the Easter program at his Sunday school, singing a solo. As he was leaving the church with his mother, a friend said to him: "George, you did fine."

"I know it," he replied.

His mother, reproving him, said: "Why, George, you should not have said that to the lady." Whereupon George answered: "Well, mother, I guess I could hear my own voice."

"Enery," observed Bill 'Awkins, "I fear as yer got a job."

"Yes," answered the sad Enery, "I have got a job."

"Yer don't appear very 'appy about it, do yer?" asked Bill.

"Ain't yer foreman a decent cove, then?"

"Oh! 'E's a mean, low minded feller!" cried the outraged 'Enery. "'E's a dirty dork, 'e is. Got 'Un like notions as 'ow gents like me should be treated. F'r instance, would yer believe it, 'e actually took the legs off the wheelbarrows so as a cove can't sit down an' rest? Oh, 'e's a mean dorg!"—London Ideas.

She said Elwell carried one set, she the second and the third she found on the mantle in the "death" room the morning Elwell was shot. Police believe the murder suspect carried the third set of keys. His arrest was said, depends on an interview with a woman associate of Elwell. This woman it is hoped, will establish whether the murder was committed over a money quarrel or due to the "unwritten law."

EXPECT ARREST IN ELWELL MURDER OF TRACK ASSOCIATE

New York June 26.—An arrest within 24 hours in the Joseph B. Elwell case is expected, it was predicted today by police. The man suspected of firing the shot which killed the noted whist expert is said to be one of his race track associates who is known to have quarreled with Elwell over his moral code. The man is middle aged and wealthy.

The ring of evidence which entangled this turf associate in Elwell's mysterious murder, began when the man contradicted himself while undergoing examination by detectives. The suspect repeatedly denied all association with Elwell in recent months although police had positive information that the couple were frequently seen together.

Mrs. Marie Larsen, Elwell's housekeeper, also gave the police a clue linking this suspect with the murder. She contradicted earlier statements, by declaring that there were three sets of keys to Elwell's home.

Beat whites of eggs until stiff, add prune mixture gradually when cold and lemon juice. Pile lightly on buttered pudding dish, bake twenty minutes in slow oven. Serve cold with boiled custard. Half this recipe serves four persons.

Jam Cake—One cup sugar, three-quarters cup butter, three eggs, two cups flour, one cup raspberry jam, one teaspoon cloves, one teaspoon cinnamon, one scant tablespoon soda dissolved in three tablespoons sour milk.

Fruit Tarts—Line muffin tins with pastry, bake, fill with any kind of nice canned or fresh fruit. Or you can fill tins with the filling after you line them with the paste and bake. If you add uncooked fruit such as apples, add sugar and a little cream and cinnamon or your favorite flavor.

This is cheaper than pies and a nice dessert.

To make pastry for this: Two cups of flour and one cup lard or substitute. Mix well, add pinch of salt; work thoroughly. Add water enough to moisten, not wet, then press out in palm of hand.

Yet after Mrs. Lynch had left me and I had finished the tea and toast the thought of the new girl kept recurring to me. Perhaps she was lonely and discouraged too. No one but a poor working girl—or one out of work would ever choose Mrs. Lynch's as her home.

Late in the afternoon I got up and dressed. I heard sound indicative of settling across the hall and I tapped on the door.

"Come in!" A loud hearty sort of a voice called.

I pushed the door open and went in.

"I am Zena Stewart. My room is across the hall. I thought perhaps I might help you."

"Well, I call that mighty kind of you!" There ain't no need of helpin' but if you'd talk to a fellow a bit it would be real nice. I'm tired to death of my own company." Then, "My name is Mary Murphy—not quite so swell as yours, is it?"

"I think it is a very nice name."

"My but you're swell too ain't you? Do you live here all the time or are you just visiting?" Evidently Mary considered the letter "g" as a useless member of the alphabet.

"I live here!" I replied amused in spite of my unhappiness. Mary was a tall girl with a large frame big hands and feet. But her eyes were a lovely clear blue—honest looking eyes and she had a nice smile and perfect teeth. Her hair was blowsy, a sort of dead looking flax. Her hands were rough and red and her shoes gaped at the top from lack of buttons.

"Well, I swan! No one'd ever believe it. You must have a dandy job also someone left you money." Her bright eyes traveled over me from tip to toe.

"No, Mary. I haven't any job. And I have no money. I had not intended to tell anyone I was out of work. I thought I would surely find another place in a few days doing something, and that it was unnecessary to tell of my discharge."

"Gee! How do you do it?"

"My father was a rich man, Mary—we all thought he was. When he died there were business troubles there was nothing left for us—Mother and me. I had lots of good clothes and that was all. They have made me a lot of trouble, too."

"I never heard that good clothes were a trouble before," she said. "Id like a few such troubles myself."

"They are a trouble in this way. I can't get work—I mean some of the placed have tried to get have told me I dressed to well. They don't give me time to explain and hint terrible things—that I come by them."

"Oh don't I know just what them things are they would say? I wasn't born yesterday nor day before if I do look green. But don't you care. You're educated—I can tell by your talk. You'll find something good pretty soon."

It comforted me to hear Mary talk. She was just a girl too and about my age. I felt as if I had found a friend at once in her. And I needed a friend if ever a girl did.

I hadn't asked any questions of Mary. I go to a little place near here, honest blue eyes were recommendation enough. So I listened to her chatter while she unpacked her few possessions, hung her two extra dresses in the closet and laid her cheap toilet articles on the bureau. Then I said:

"I haven't had my dinner yet, Mary. I go to a little place near here. Don't you want to go with me?"

"You bet I do! Don't I talk awful? I ain't had no education like you, We'll go Dutch tho."

"All right. That's the way we girls at home used to do."

"I didn't think swell girls done such things."
